HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing so closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.
DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore to them a measure of energy and vigor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, never feel well: they are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1767.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a good tonic, useful in diseases arising from debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."
HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."
FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very truly,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.
FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

MY DEAR OLD HOME.

I came again to my dear old home,
But years long since have sped,
And 'mid the raven locks of youth
I ay many a silvery thread!
The bounding step was slow and sad,
The sparkling eye grew dim,
And the bird-notes once so blithsome, fell
Like the chimes of a funeral hymn.

I looked for the roof that sheltered once
The loved of childhood's hours;
I sought for the hearthstone—upon it lay
A mound of grass and flowers;
The broad-armed oak, whose sheltering
Was the scene of our merry play— [shade
A moss grown stump marked out the spot
That told of its sad decay.

I wandered down the popular spring,
And drank from its gushing stream,
But the draught had lost its magic charm,
The waves their golden gleam;
For the rippling waters seemed to speak
With tones of long ago—
O, many a tuneful voice is still
That mingled with their flow.

I turned to seek, with lingering step,
And spirit bowed and sad,
For those that had blessed that lowly roof
And made the hearth-stone glad;
And I found them all where the willow
Its long green boughs around— [drooped
Some cherished form was resting there,
Neath each quiet, grassy mound.

I am forth again, in this wide, cold world,
But where'er my footsteps tread,
The dearest sent will be to me
The home of the loved ones dead.
The sunshine steals thro' the hanging boughs
With a softened, stendy light;
And silent stars gleam purest there,
In hush of the summer night.

A PRECOCIOUS CHAP.

BY P. O. MUDLURK.

John Smith—you've heard of him—is very bashful—is too bashful, in truth. He was born and raised in the country. His father gave him a good education and allows him plenty of money. But John, with all his other attainments, never could accustom himself to the society of females; not because he didn't like the girls, but because his shy nature would not permit him to associate with the fair sex. It once happened, not very long ago, either, that John's father had some very important business to transact in the city. He also had some very particular affairs to attend to at home, which demanded his personal attention, and, not possessing the powers of ubiquity, he delegated his son John to transact that in the city.

John, being thus commissioned, immediately proceeded to the city and to the residence of his father's old friend, whom he found to be a very nice old gentleman, with a beautiful daughter, and gold spectacles.

John was ushered into the parlor, (a new thing to him), and motioned to a sea—no! a sofa, (another new thing).

But we must use his own language: "I took my seat and made observations. Everything was fine! Fine carpets, fine sofas, fine tables, fine curtains, fine books, fine pianoes, fine everything, and especially a fine young lady was dressed in fine silk, fine satin, and who had fine curls, and a fine appearance generally.

After chatting with the old gentleman a few minutes, he took down his hat, told me to make myself at home for an hour or two, and left—left me alone with his daughter and a small mischievous boy, the young lady's brother. I didn't relish the situation at all. The idea of keeping a city belle engaged in conversation for two hours—perdition! Silence reigned in that parlor for a short time, you may bet. I amused myself as much as possible with the boy—that is, I loaned him my knife and watch key, and watched him cut holes in the carpet with one and spoil the other. I don't know what I would have done had it not been for that boy—he was good to attract one's attention, you know.

It is true that he asked some very startling questions, occasionally, such as this for instance: "Are you goin' to court sister Emily?" but such things must be expected under such circumstances.

Miss Emily, thinking, no doubt, that to be a good hostess, she must keep her guest engaged in conversation, asked me "how I liked country life," etc. She said that "it must be a beautiful sight to see the laborers, both male and female, romping on the new mown hay on New Year's day; that she always did think she would like to spend a Christmas in the country a nut gathering with the village lads and lasses; that it always had been a mystery to her how they got the eggs off the trees without breaking them, etc.

In return, I thought that to keep up my part of the conversation, it was necessary for me to quote poetry and the like, which I did. Among other quotations, I unfortunately repeated the well known lines of Shakespere,

"There is a divinity that shapes our ends,
Rough-hew them as we will."

At this juncture, the boy, who had perched himself upon my knees, looked very earnestly into my face and said; "Divinity shaped the end of your nose mighty curus." I'm certain that I blushed a little; I am very certain that I wished somebody would spank one of his—well, we talked of hills, mountains, vales, cataracts—I believe I said waterfalls, when the boy spoke up and said: "Why sister's got a trunk full of them up-stairs—pap says they are made out'en horse hair.

The revelation struck terror into me and blushes into the cheeks of my fair companion.

It began to be very apparent to me that I must be very guarded in what I said, lest said boy might slip in his remarks at uncalled for places; in fact I turned all my conversation to him. I told him he ought to go home with me and see what nice chickens we had in the country. Unluckily, I mentioned a yoke of calves that my little brothers had. The word calves ruined all. The little fellow looked up and said: "Sister's got a dozen of 'em but she don't wear 'em only when she goes up in town o' windy days."

"Leave the room, you unmannered little wretch!" exclaimed Miss Emily, "leave immediately!"

"I know what you want me to leave for," replied he; "you can't fool me—you want to set in that man's lap and kiss him like you did Bill Simmons the other day—you can't fool me! I'll jes' tell you. Gimme some candy like he did, then I'll go. You think that because you've got the Grecian Bend that you're smart! Guess I know a thing or two! I'm mad at you, anyhow, 'cause pap would a bought me a new top yistiddy, if it hadn't been for you a gitten them curls you've got on, doggone ye! You needn't turn so red in your face, cause I can't see it for the paint. They ain't no use in you winking at me with that glass eye o' yourn, 'cause I ain't going out'n here, now that's what's the matter with the purps. I don't care if you are twenty-ty eight years old, you ain't no boss o' mine, you ole fool."

That is all the story that John related. He says he don't know how he got out of the scrape.

MORAL.—Beware of knowing children.

CHARITY AND GOOD SPIRITS.—Somebody says that many a man sits in his own house full of benevolent desires, longing to do good to somebody, anxious to make those around him happy; but he does not know how, and seems to himself useless and merely speculative being, incapable of doing good. Let that man only put on his hat and visit the garret of some poor family, or assist his poor relatives, and it will do him good in a thousand ways. The money he throws away daily in luxury would feed and clothe and rejoice a dozen sick and starving families. Such benevolence will do more to promote economy than it will ever cost. It will come back to him who gives, saving him from foolish luxuries. It will show up the hollowness of the follies on which he wastes what might set up many a family. Fifty dollars extra on a piano might not seem much; but there is many a poor and honest widow to whom a fifty dollar sewing machine would be a fortune; and she could in time even repay the cost, to be lent in the same form to another and another. Wretched passengers on the sea of life, at this season, lie on the loam of every wave. Perhaps many and most of the misfortunes of the poor are more or less the result, in some way, of their own faults. But have those who have been more successful had no faults? A kind word and a helping hand may give the turn to the fortune of the child of misfortune, and raise up many such a one higher than could possibly be imagined by those who have never made the effort and never try it.

Recipe for Curing Meat.

Before salting the meat down, rub it effectually with ground Cyenne pepper. To one gallon of water,

Take 1½ lbs. of salt.
½ lb. of sugar.
½ oz. of saltpetre.
½ oz. of potash.

In this ratio the pickle to be increased to any quantity desired. Let these be boiled together, until all the dirt from the sugar rises to the top and is skimmed off. Then throw it into a tub to cool, and when cold, pour it over your beef or pork, to remain the usual time, say four or five weeks. The meat must be well covered with pickle, and should not be put down for at least two days after killing, during which time it should be slightly sprinkled with powdered saltpetre, which removes all the surface blood, &c., leaving the meat fresh and clean. Some omit boiling the pickle, and find it to answer well; though the operation of boiling purifies the pickle by throwing off the dirt always to be found in salt and sugar.

If this receipt is properly tried, it will never be abandoned. There is none that surpasses it, if so good.

BARBARA FRITCHIE.—In answer to the question which has been raised as to the fact of Barbara Fritchie's existence, a Frederick correspondent writes to the Saturday Evening Post as follows. It seems that Mrs. Fritchie was a Pennsylvanian by birth:

Mrs. Barbara Fritchie (whose maiden name was Hauer,) was born in Lancaster, Pa., December 3d, 1766.—She removed to Frederick, Md., when she was fourteen years old, and was married to John Casper Fritchie in the year 1804. Her husband died in 1849. Mrs. Barbara Fritchie died December 18, 1862. She was buried in the German Reformed burial ground in this place. There is a tombstone to mark her last resting-place.

Mrs. Barbara Fritchie was in her ninety-seventh year at the time of her death. The house she lived in at the time she waved the flag, and where the other incidents happened, related in Whittier's poem, is still standing, though a portion of it was washed away by the late flood.

☞An Irishman who had left his country and sought an asylum in America, because it was a land of liberty, was attacked on his first arrival, in December, by a furious mastiff. He stooped to pick up a stone to defend himself, but the stone was frozen fast. "By my soul," said Pat, "what a swate country, where the dogs are all left loose and the stones tied fast!"

THE QUEEN'S LOVE.

Few, if any, readers of English history, have doubted that Elizabeth, "the maiden queen," loved the chivalric Earl of Essex. Her's was wild infatuated love, such as the "glorious Sorceress of the Nile" bore for Mark Anthony. She, a queen, upon whose head the crown of England sat nobly, made love to one of her courtiers—a favorite.

One night Elizabeth sat in her royal chamber, her head bowed upon the finely carved table, and the folds of her gorgeous night drapery hanging loosely around her. A light rap startled the queen from her reverie. She raised her head, brushed back her silver-threaded hair, and asked who wished admittance at such an hour.

"Annette," was the reply.

Ah! my chambermaid?" said the queen, as she opened the door, and a buxom lass, with bright eyes, rosy cheeks, and raven tresses, entered and curtsied most gracefully. "Thou art welcome, good Annette," said Elizabeth; "but methinks thou comest late."

"There is a man at the wicket, my lady," replied the girl.

"Annette, a man!"

"Yes, my lady."

"'Tis an unreasonable hour for a visit, but did he state his business?"

"He said he wished to see the queen."

"Knowest thou his name, Annette?" and the queen gazed into her maid's face rather searchingly.

"Yes, my mistress; it is Essex."

"Then admit him at once."

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to this office will please make payment on or before the first day of January next. Printer's accounts are small and should be settled at least once a year.

☞The Globe will not be issued next week. Our hands want to enjoy the Holidays with the rest of the people.

☞The Legislature will meet on the 1st Tuesday in January. A United States Senator will be elected on the 2d Tuesday. Mr. Scott's chances for an election are considered good.

☞By the new arrangement of seats in the House, Gen. Ben. Butler is obliged to take his seat alongside of John Morrissey, Brooks, and other Democrats. He will keep one eye on them, anyhow.

☞It is rumored that Caleb Cushing has been sent to Spain to negotiate for the purchase of the island of Cuba, with the authority to offer for it one hundred millions of dollars in gold. If such is the case, we say keep the money at home.

☞Pennsylvania takes the lead of the seven leading States in the increase of her vote since 1860. It has increased 182,000; New York 171,000; Illinois 110,000; Ohio 77,000; Michigan 68,000; Massachusetts 26,000 and New Hampshire 2,000.

☞Secretary McCulloch estimates that the receipts from customs and other sources for the next year will reach $327,000,000; while the expenditures will reach $303,000,000. The biggest item in expenditures is that of the interest on the public debt, which will reach $128,000,000.

☞A few politicians are still busy making Grant's Cabinet. They, in our opinion, are a little too eager to be considered prophets. Grant is too sharp to make known who will be appointed to any one, until the proper time, and we will take nobody's sayings in this respect until the proper time comes.

☞Gov. Geary has just issued a proclamation conveying the gratifying intelligence to the people of this Commonwealth that the State debt has been reduced two millions four hundred and fourteen thousand eight hundred and sixteen dollars and sixty four cents ($2,414,816 14) during the past year.

☞At the close of the last trial of Jeff. Davis, at a session of the United States Circuit Court at Richmond on the 4th inst., Chief Justice Chase announced that the Court was divided; he being in favor of quashing the indictment, and District Judge Underwood opposing it. This division of the Court was certified to the Supreme Court of the United States.

☞The question of the constitutionality of the Legal Tender Act is now before the Supreme Court of the United States. The decision is looked for with great anxiety. If the act is declared unconstitutional all money transactions would be completely upset; the dollar would be the gold-dollar, and the greenback dollar would only pass for about half as much.

☞It is proposed to change the time of holding spring elections until the fall of the year. It is argued that in the spring of the year a large mass of the people are so engaged that they cannot get to the polls, or afford the time necessary to do so. We would much prefer the voting to come all in a lump rather than in stray dribs, and for that reason we approve of the proposition to change the time until October.

☞It is charged that two and a half millions of dollars in gold, of the seven and a half millions ordered to be paid to Russia for the purchase of Alaska, was squandered to buy up members of Congress, editors and political borers, to get the bill through Congress. An investigation is ordered, when if nothing is learned, are we to believe that a few dollars more have been employed to hush up the investigating committee?

☞Some of our Republican cotemporaries are felicitating in the fact that they have published President Johnson's last message. What a pity the President was such an eye sore to the mass of his countrymen, when by a little closer attention to his first declared principles his name would have been made immortal on the side of Justice; but as it is, the fact is too apparent he has failed to please those who placed him in power, while it is equally true he has done much to encourage those who were at one time against him.

The Governor of Iowa, by proclamation, declares that the word 'white' has been stricken from the Constitution of that State.

☞The Democrats are making great ado about the expression of General Grant that "Troops are still needed in the Southern States," and contrast it with his expression before the election of "Let us have peace." The Democrats who make a hubbub about this are assuredly great geniuses. Of course, they want the Ku Kluxes to be let alone; of course all the troops are to be withdrawn so that their brethren may do as they please; of course peace must be restored by taking the rebels by the hand and whispering loving terms of conciliation in their ears; of course that is the way they expected peace to be restored; but Grant thinks otherwise. Peace is to be restored, in his estimation, by compelling the Southern revolutionists to obey the laws—only this and nothing more, and if he don't have troops at his command to effect this how could he accomplish it? An unpeaceable community like the South needs the military to make them understand how peace is to be obtained. But it is the old principle of the Democrats again manifesting itself; for when the rebellion was about to be inaugurated they counselled peace by compromise, until the rebels in armed array fired up on Fort Sumpter, and even then some of them were bold-enough to say, Oh! don't use the military! But the people demanded its use then, and General Grant but obeys the will of the people now when he declares that "troops are still needed in the Southern States."

☞Gen. Howard has asked the appointment of a committee to examine into the operations of the Freedman's Bureau from its organization to the present time. This does not look as if there was any warrant for the charge of abuses in that department, made by the Democrats before the election

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

Tuesday.—In the Senate several memorials and petitions were presented and referred. A bill to prevent military officers from holding civil offices, and to prevent the holding more than one office at a time, was referred to the Judiciary Committee. A resolution was adopted calling on the President for information respecting the action of the commission for the adjustment of the claims against Venezuela. A resolution was also adopted asking the Secretary of the Treasury for information respecting Alaska. The Judiciary Committee had referred to it the bill to punish the crime of holding office in violation of the fourteenth constitutional amendment. The bill to repeal the law prohibiting the organization of Southern militia was taken up and passed. Adjourned.

In the House.—A resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on Commerce to inquire into the propriety of prohibiting the carrying of petroleum or other inflammable material in passenger steam vessels. A select committee was then appointed on the New York election frauds. After which the House went into Committee of the Whole on the tariff bill, but without disposing of it adjourned at 4 p. m.

Wednesday.—In the Senate, the bill fixing duties on imported copper and copperas was reported back from the committee, and on motion laid on the table to be called up at an early day, as was also a resolution setting forth that neither public policy nor good faith will allow the redemption of the five twenty bonds until the Government notes are paid in coin. The Finance Committee reported back the joint resolution pledging the faith of the United States to the payment of the public debt in coin or its equivalent. Among the resolutions adopted was one looking toward the prevention of the discharge of persons convicted of crimes by decisions of United States district judges in Virginia; one instructing the Naval Committee to inquire into the practicability of making the harbor of the Midway Islands in the Pacific a rendezvous for our vessels; one appropriating $30,000 for the temporary relief of the poor of the District, and also one requesting of the Secretary of the Treasury what has been the total cost of the issue of the fractional currency up to this time. The bill for the resumption of specie payment was then taken up, and an able speech on it was delivered by Senator Morton. At 4 35 P. M. the Senate adjourned.

In the House, a bill prohibiting the carriage as freight on passenger vessels of nitro-glycerine and other explosive materials was referred to Committee on Commerce, and ordered to be printed. A bill was passed for the removal of political disabilities from certain specified persons. Among the bills passed was one reported from the Reconstruction Committee, to repeal the sixth section of army appropriation bill of March 2, 1867; one for the amendment of the eighteenth section of the internal revenue bill of July 20, 1868; and one asking the President for information regarding the Union Pacific Railroad. Several communications were received from the executive departments, and were appropriately referred. After a new distribution of seats the House adjourned.

Thursday.—In the Senate, resolutions designed for the protection of minorities, and to provide against contingency of bringing election of President and Vice President to House of Representatives, were presented and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. Before a vote could be taken on the resolution of sympathy with Spain, the morning hour expired, when the resolution disapproving the President's financial recommendation was taken up and passed. A bill to provide for giving effect to extradition treaties was presented and referred.—The President was directed to transmit information respecting the treatment of Americans in Japan. Adjourned.

House.—The session of the House was almost entirely occupied in listening to eulogies on the late Hon. Thad. Stevens.

☞A Merry Christmas to all.

Proceedings of the Huntingdon County Teachers' Convention.

December 14th, 1868.

Afternoon Session.—Pursuant to public notice, the Huntingdon County Teachers' Convention assembled in the Court House, at Huntingdon, at 2 o'clock, p. m., and was called to order by Superintendent D. F. Tussey. On motion of A. H. Kauffman, S. B. Taylor and R. McNeal, were appointed Secretaries. After the Teachers present had been enrolled, Superintendent Tussey addressed the meeting very ably upon the objects of the Convention and the duties of those having charge of the educational interests of the County. The election of Committee on permanent certificates was held, and resulted in the choice of H. Scott McPherran, W. H. Sheader, Levi Clabaugh, Martha Beal and Emma Conrad. After some announcements by the County Superintendent, the Convention adjourned.

Evening Session.—The exercises of the Institute were very agreeably opened by a piece of vocal music by the Glee Club, of the Cassville Orphan School. Prof. S. G. Boyd, of York County, was introduced and proceeded to address the Convention, upon methods of study and instruction. In order to be successful it is necessary for teachers to acquire a thorough knowledge of the subject matter to be taught; of the character of the human mind and proper methods of imparting instruction to learners. His remarks were very interesting and listened to with marked attention. After a piece of vocal music by the Glee Club, Prof. A. McElwain of Chambersburg, was introduced and addressed the Institute, briefly upon a variety of topics connected with the duties of the school room. S. T. Brown, Esq., made some encouraging remarks to teachers regarding the progress of Education, and the prospects of the success of the Convention. The subject of school government, was ably discussed by Prof. A. L. Guss, R. S. Henderson, and Prof. S. G. Boyd. After some announcements, and a song by the Glee Club the Convention adjourned.

December 15th, 1868.

Morning Session.—The Institute met in School-room No. 1, and was opened with prayer by Rev. A. L. Guss. After calling the roll, Prof. Boyd presented the subject of Arithmetic, and illustrated his method in the school-room. Quite a number of questions were asked by different members of the Convention and promptly answered. Professor Fisher then conducted a spelling class, and assigned one hundred words as the first lesson in the spelling contest. After a piece of vocal music by the Cassville Orphan School Glee Club, the subject of Elocution was introduced by Miss Haley, of Massachusetts, who after some very interesting remarks, formed the Institute into a class and drilled them on the Elementary sounds of the language. She then read several selections.—"Charge of the Light Brigade," "Thanatopsis," &c., in a very effective and acceptable manner. Adjourned.

Afternoon Session.—Convention met at 1.30 p. m. After calling the roll, the spelling contest was resumed and one hundred additional words were edicated and spelled. The Institute was then favored with a piece of music by the Glee Club. Prof. Boyd resumed the subject of Arithmetic in his able and fascinating style, eliciting the interest of the Institute in an admirable manner. Penmanship was introduced by H. Scott McPherran, who made some practical remarks regarding the importance of the subject and the best methods of teaching it in our common schools. Adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock

Evening Session.—The Institute met in the Court House at the appointed hour and in the absence of the County Superintendent was called to order by Superintendent Fisher of Bedford county. The minutes of the preceding session were read and approved. The roll was called. This was followed by a piece of vocal music by the Cassville Orphan school Glee Club. Miss Haley favored the Institute with a recitation; subject "Lookout Mountain." An elaborate and well prepared essay, subject "Teachers and Teaching" was very ably read by Linnie Sangree. An extract from the "School of Scandal" was most ably recited by Miss Haley. Music by the Glee Club "Sally Ann's Away," elicited the most rapturous applause. This was followed by recitations by Miss Hawley "The Polish Boy" and "Tied Piper of Dublin" which were received by the large audience with great applause. The Glee Club sang several pieces—"Old Mountain Tree" and Nicodemus after which the Convention adjourned.

December 16th, 1868.

Morning Session.—The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Pennypacker; the roll was called, after which the spelling contest was continued by Superintendent Fisher. Miss Haley resumed the subject of Elocution, speaking upon stress, slur, emphasis, inflections and monotone, reading examples to illustrate each of the topics. She concluded her lecture by reading "The Driver," and "Mrs. Bolus." Prof. S. G. Boyd, then presented the subject of Geography giving his views in regard to teaching primary classes. After some vocal music by the Glee Club the Institute adjourned.

Afternoon Session.—The Institute met in the Court House, and was called to order by the President. After the roll had been called, the spelling contest was continued, after which Mr. H. Scott McPherran, resumed his instructions upon the subject of Penmanship. After analyzing and explaining the principles and elements of the letters, and speaking of the importance of assuming a proper position while writing, the speaker proceeded to class and date the subject. On motion the thanks of the Convention were tendered the lecturer for his able, logical and instructive address. Prof. S. G. Boyd resumed his instructions in Geography, treating the subject in his own energetic, instructive and popular style, dwelling specially upon the importance of pursuing the study in a logical and proper order. Adjourned.

Evening Session.—After some business of a miscellaneous character, the Convention was favored with a so g. "Happy Greeting," by the Glee Club, followed by a piece of select reading by Miss Haley, "Pickwick in a Dilemma," which was greeted with rapturous applause. Song by the Glee Club, "Over the Snow." Hon. S. G. Boyd of York, delivered a lecture; subject "History and Etymology of Geographical Names." The Lecture abounded in entertainment and instruction, and was delivered in an energetic and felicitous style. "Exercise Song," by the Glee Club, after which Miss Haley read a very humorous selection, entitled, "The Lost Heir," which elicited outbursts of merriment, and applause. Music by the Glee Club, "Lazy Bill." Dr. Wintrode was then introduced, and after some instructive remarks upon the subject of Elocution, read several selections, entitled "Little Sealskin," "The German's Fatherland" and "The Victim." After music by the Glee Club, and some announcements, the Institute adjourned.

December 17th, 1868.

Morning Session.—The Institute met in the Court House. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. A. L. Guss. After the roll had been called Mr. Fisher resumed the spelling contest and dictated an additional one hundred words. Miss Haley then recited an extract from "Hiawatha." Prof. Mohler County Superintendent of Mifflin Co., then presented the subject of English Grammar, advocating the principle of teaching the subject to beginners without the use of the text book. After presenting his views in regard to the importance &c., of the subject the speaker urged thoroughness even if it required two weeks or more to master one part of speech. He was followed on the same subject by Messrs. Sheader, Henderson, Shultz and Boyd. The subject of Elocution was then resumed by Miss Hawley. After giving some very practical instruction in modulation she concluded by reading some excellent selections in the ablest style. The question "Should whispering be strictly prohibited in school?" was proposed to the Institute but as there seemed to be no disposition manifested in favor of this question it was passed over and the following adopted instead viz:—"Should the names of the 26 letters of the alphabet be learned by young pupils before they are taught words and how to read short sentences?" Remarks on the affirmative of this question were made by Prof. Boyd and J. A. Congdon. Adjourned.

The people of Morrison's Cove are again agitating the railroad question. It is proposed to intersect the Penna. railroad at Petersburg and the Broad Top road at Piper's Run.

The editor of an exchange loves to think of the time his old preceptor applied the birch to him. We don't envy in the least that preceptor's memory.

The saw-mill of Messrs. J. S. Reed & Co., near Philipsburg, Center county, recently caved in, and buried in its ruins some five or six employees, all of whom were injured more or less, but none fatally.

We will publish in our next the essay of Miss Sallie A. Carter, of Manor Hill, this county, upon "Cultivated Womanhood," which was read at the Teachers' Institute. It is lengthy, but good, nevertheless.

Mrs. Hannah McClean, of Springfield, Mass, and mother of Rev. O. O McClean, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place, fell from a window on the 19th of November, during an attack of somnambulism, and was instantly killed. She was 80 years of age.

Baron Rothschild, of Paris, is said to have left an estate worth 2,000,000,000 francs, or $400,000,000. This is enough to buy up all the real estate in the City of New York at its assessed valuation, and half of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia included. The Baron was comfortably rich.

A Mysterious Affair.

On Wednesday afternoon last, the citizens of our town were alarmed with the intelligence that a woman had been found dead in the canal near the station house. She was taken out as soon as discovered, and a Coroner's jury summoned, who determined that she came to her death by drowning, but could not determine when or how. It appears that the woman was one who a few days before had been going from door to door begging money and clothing. She was seen to give the clothing to two men who went with her. Many rumors are afloat in regard to her, and it is not known whether she was drunk and committed suicide, or whether she was drowned by the men who were with her. A shawl belonging to her was found a short distance above where she was taken out of the canal. She was buried in the Cemetery.

Mr. Roberts' Lecture.

On Saturday evening last our citizens were again treated with a lecture on the subject of Temperance by Mr. Thomas Roberts the State Temperance lecturer in behalf of the order of Good Templars. Mr. Roberts is now lecturing in this county, and wherever he has gone he has been the means of reviving a lagging spirit of temperance, and awakened communities to the importance of the Temperance reform.—He is well qualified as a lecturer, being quaint, Scotchlike, practical and entertaining. Our citizens, who heard him were generally well pleased.

Fair.

The young ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a fair in the upper room of the Court House, commencing on Thursday at two o'clock in the afternoon, 24th inst. Toys, dolls and a variety of fancy articles will be offered for sale; also, Oysters, coffee, Ice cream and other refreshments in the evening. The patronage of the public is invited. MORE TESTIMONY.

From the "TIMES" New Foltz, N. Y.

We take pleasure this week in calling attention of our readers to the advertisement of "Hoofland's German Bitters." It is the only Tonic for the Invalid that commends itself. Our Druggist, E. Van Wagenen, in this village has sold two gross the past six months, and in every instance it gave satisfaction. Now is the time to use the Bitters.

Hoofland's Bitters is entirely free from alcoholic admixture.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, anise, &c. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where an Alcoholic Stimulant is necessary. It is a preparation of rare medical value, and most agreeable to the palate.

Sold everywhere by Druggists and others.

BANKRUPTS AND BANKRUPTCY.—Since the passage of the Bankrupt Act eleven hundred and one petitions in bankruptcy have been filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, and five hundred and seventy-four discharges have been granted. So, but a little over one half of the applications have, to use a common phrase, "got through." The reason of this in nearly every case, is the neglect of the applicant, or his inability to pay the necessary charges. In this district, we are informed, a number of discharges are withheld on account of the fees not being paid. We advise such and all others who intend availing themselves of the act, to do so without delay, as the present law, or at least the material section of it, will expire with the present year.

To The Purchasing Public.

A call is extended to visit McNeil's Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing goods establishment, corner of the Diamond and acquire satisfaction by inspection that nothing in his line can be found better or cheaper elsewhere. Why, a man can go there and array himself from top to toe in underwear that fits to a T, and deck himself with the prettiest of neck-ties, collars, cuffs and gloves. A lady can do the same in articles pertaining to feminine use, and render herself sweet and pretty in colors of the rainbow, or others more quiet.

The Temple of Fashion now contains a heavy and handsome stock of goods, is just the place to purchase holiday presents, and articles can be found there to suit the length of any purse.

December 23—1t.†

Teachers' Institute.

We publish the proceedings of the Teachers' Institute which assembled last week in this place, in another column. There was a very good attendance of teachers, and their meetings from day to day were interesting and productive of much good to the teachers and our citizens who attended.—The Readings of Miss Haley and Mrs. Randall were universally admired, and the instruction imparted by Profs. Fishor, Boyd and others, was rich and rare. The exercises of the pupils of the Soldiers' Orphan School added greatly to the pleasure of all present. The teachers were no doubt all pleased with the Convention as it is a means of bringing them together for social greeting and mutual instruction in their profession. The Institutes accomplish but little in our estimation if they don't do this.

STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—Hon. Thomas H Burrowes has accepted the Presidency of this College tendered to him by the Trustees a month or so ago, and has submitted a plan for its re organization embracing, among others, the following features: One student to be admitted from each county of the State, free (except board) and one from each county for every twelve thousand of its population. The College will accommodate four hundred students, and will be supported by the interest of the proceeds of certain land scrip donated by the United States. The plan was approved, and will be carried into execution as soon as the details can be arranged.

☞Another change of nickel coins has been inaugurated. The new coins are to be composed of one-fourth nickel and three-fourths copper. The one cent coin weighing a grain and a half, is about the size of the old silver five cent pieces; the three and five cent pieces, about the size of the coins that are now in use, are to weigh three and five grains respectively. We are opposed to such a system of experimenting and would greatly prefer something stable to something elegant in the way of small coins.

Church Reopening.

The M. E. Church in Cassville, having been remodeled, repaired, and entirely refurnished, will be reopened on the first Sabbath in January. Rev. J. A. Coleman of Philadelphia, and Rev. J. Stine, of Salona, will be present to conduct the religious exercises. The Pastors and people of surrounding churches are respectfully invited to attend. S. A. CREVELING, Cassville, Dec. 18, 1868. Pastor.

☞Almost a riot every day. Everybody calls—the rush is great. The number and value of presents increased. See list of presents in another column, and call at Massey & Co's Grocery, Confectionary & Toy Store, or Lewis' Book Store. The Enterprise will be continued and valuable presents will be distributed monthly.—Those who may not receive a present will not lose anything.

"My Christmas Gift."

What would be nicer for a Christmas present than one of those Satchels of which Cunningham & Carmon have such an endless variety. You who have friends whom you wish to make happy, by means of some token of your friendship, go at once and examine their stock and you will conclude that a nicer present could not be thought of. 1t

A MERRY CHRISTMAS.—We wish our patrons and the rest of mankind a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, and may you all live to see another.

Letter from Huntingdon, Penn'a.

Thrift and Enterprise of Huntingdon and its People---Property Speculation---New Manufactories---Hon. John Scott for United States Senator.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburg Commercial.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Dec. 14, 1868.

This is one of the oldest settlements in the interior, and, the population consisting mainly—until within the past few years—of old families, nearly all connected with each other by intermarriages, possessed with little or no enterprise; the town was considered as finished, being as was supposed as large as it could be built, upon the level ground extending back to the hills.

J. Edgar Thompson, (the President of the Pennsylvania Railroad and now candidate for United States Senator) saw at an early date after the completion of the road, what the people here were too dull to perceive, that the town must necessarily increase, and as it could not well climb the hills, it must extend westwardly; and so he purchased a large farm immediately adjoining and fronting along the railroad, which he laid out into lots, and within the last few years aided by an impression which obtained in some way, and which was uncontradicted by him or his agents, succeeded in selling them for a handsome profit on his investment. The impression was that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company would erect large repair shops at this point, and that the shops at Mifflin would be removed to this place, certain large reservations having been made in the sale of lots, which were said to be for the site thereof. Possibly something of this kind was needed to stimulate a dull population into activity; the result is that the population has nearly or more than doubled within a few years, and the demand for houses has stimulated a further speculative purchase still westwardly of Mr. Thompson, which is now being sold out in lots with a fair prospect of success.

This latter is a domestic enterprise, and is somewhat stimulated by the erection of a factory for carriage work and furniture, and the prospect of a similar one for making stoves and other castings. I hear also of projects for manufacturing glass, the materials for which are convenient. Also, iron works are spoken of, and I can readily see for myself the feasibility of this latter project, as the raw materials in the shape of ore and coal, are constantly passing through here, destined for Danville, for Johnstown, for Hollidaysburg, and other places, where they are made into iron. The saving of freight by stopping them here would alone be a good profit. Coal is rather cheaper here than in Pittsburg; the quality is different, however, but it is claimed to be much better for manufacturing purposes—certainly this is not the case as a fuel.

Rents and living are decidedly cheaper; in regard to the former, the laboring class mostly own their own dwellings, as lots, 50 by 150, are sold at $200, and on credit at that.

Huntingdon, I find, intends to insist on the Hon. John Scott for United States Senator, and a large delegation of his friends will visit Harrisburg to urge his claims. They will insist that the State shall be represented by at least one man of a high order of talent, able to make an impression upon Congress by eloquence, legal learning and unimpeachable integrity.

Much more did I learn during my forced though not unpleasant stay here, which I may write of again.

☞Can it be possible that over Five Million Bottles of Plantation Bitters have been sold during the past year? It is almost incredible, nevertheless it is absolutely true, and is the most convincing proof of their wonderful medicinal and health-restoring qualities. Every family should be supplied with these Bitters, at whatever cost or trouble they may be to obtain them. Be careful that you get the genuine, and that you are not imposed upon by a spurious article. 1t.

TO THE PEOPLE OF HUNTING DON COUNTY.

HUNTINGDON, December 23, 1868.

As there appears to be considerable trouble about who shall be appointed Post-Master in our town, and it being an office for which the person who may be appointed should contribute a liberal amount to some charitable purpose, I therefore offer myself as an applicant for the position of Post-Master at Huntingdon, Pa.; and I propose and will agree, giving my bond. with the Commissioners of Huntingdon county for the fulfillment of the same, should I be appointed, to erect a Monument for deceased soldiers, for the sum of Two Thousand Dollars; provided I am allowed to hold the office for the term of four years. Soldiers in the county, or the friends of our deceased soldiers, will confer a favor by circulating a petition in my behalf, and send the same to me.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Colds are the effect of obstructed perspiration. The symptoms are so generally understood, that nothing need be said on that point. But colds are easily taken, and unless great care is exercised a second cold will often be contracted or in other words, one cold will run into another, and a confirmed cough ensue, bringing on straining and racking of the lungs, and the production of tubercles. Although many thousands of persons are drifting through these symptoms towards pulmonary disease of a dangerous character, yet the majority think that they are troubled with nothing but an ordinary cold, which will remedy itself and pass away. Fatal delusion —the rock on which many a life has been lost. See to it at once that your cold is attended to. Use MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS, the most potent remedy ever discovered for Colds and Coughs, and a certain protection against the danger of taking them. If it is used regularly two or three times a day as a tonic. dec16-bw'.

BOOK NOTICES.

FRANKLIN ALMANAC.—The Old Franklin Almanac for 1869, published by A. Winch, 505 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, is before us. This Almanac contains, exclusive of the Actual Astronomical Calculations, a great variety of Statistics, Chronological Tables, and useful matter, never before introduced into a work of this kind, and will be a valuable acquisition to every household, store, counting-room, manufactory, office, and place of business. For sale at Lewis' Book Store—price 20 cents.

A CHALLENGE.—We have received the December number of "Merry's Museum," for young people, and old people, too, who have not forgotten that they were once young.

The Publisher, Horace B. Fuller, Boston, claims that "Merry" is the best magazine of its kind issued in this country, and challenges comparison. Our readers can decide this point for themselves by sending to him two three-cent stamps for a specimen.

The January number begins a New Volume, which will be further enlarged and improved. Terms, $1 50 a year in advance.

THE NEW ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—We have on our table this elegant publication, which has received and still receives the highest terms of praise from the press. We can cheerfully add our testimonial as to its merits for it is one of the best magazines published. Its articles are compiled with great care and apt adaptation to the refined tastes of all. It is published by Trumbull & Murdoch, 54 Lexington Street, Baltimore. Single subscription $4.00 per annum; single copy 35 cents. During the year, which commences with January next, it will give over 1500 pages of matter on every variety of topic, and contributed by the most eminent of living writers.

A NEW PAPER.—Pettengill, Bates & Co., will issue on or before January next, the first number of a Rural Paper—to be published thereafter Weekly, and to be devoted to all that pertains to Country Life in its broadest sense. It will not be partisan or sectarian. It will be called Hearth and Home, and will be under the general Editorial charge of Mr. Donald G. Mitchell; while its Home and Fireside Departments will be subject to the supervision of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, who will also contribute regularly to every number. A large corps of associate Editors, of high reputation in their special departments, has been enlisted in support of this enterprise: and no labor or expense will be spared to make the paper—in subject matter as well as illustration—worthy of a place in every household in the land.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of carbuncling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Lows, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Uterous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which, so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headach.
